

Team Leader Waste, Public Health and Environment

- Permanent Full Time Role based on Island
- Flexible Hours with Relocation Support Considered for the Right Candidate
- Competitive Salary + Super, Opportunity to impact & a Great Team Environment

Norfolk Island Regional Council seeks an experienced leader passionate about environmental health and waste management to oversee essential services and contribute to unique sustainability initiatives.

Closing Date: Monday 18th November at 10PM | Based on Norfolk Island

Nestled in the South-West Pacific, Norfolk Island is a picturesque island featuring subtropical landscapes, Norfolk Island pines, and serene beaches. For those ready to embrace an isolated lifestyle, Norfolk Island offers a unique work environment with a close-knit community and remarkable natural beauty.

Norfolk Island Regional Council is an innovative, community-focused entity dedicated to protecting the island's resources. The Council maintains a proactive approach to environmental health and waste, meeting 75% of recycling goals and making continual progress on essential services like water quality and public health. This role is an opportunity to make a meaningful impact in a distinctive setting.

Reporting to the Manager Planning and Environment, the Team Leader will be responsible for the effective daily operations of the Waste, Public Health, and Environment section. They will oversee compliance with environmental and public health regulations, ensuring that Council's objectives for community health and environmental sustainability are met.

Ideal candidates will have a solid foundation in at least two areas: waste, wastewater management, and public health, combined with practical experience in remote or isolated environments. Resilience, strong problem-solving skills, and effective communication are essential for success in this dynamic and multifaceted role. The role suits individuals who can work flexibly, manage competing priorities, and adapt to a wide-ranging set of responsibilities.

Become part of a dedicated team where your efforts will drive transformative environmental projects with a lasting community impact. Enjoy the unique lifestyle of Norfolk Island, enriched by stunning natural surroundings and a supportive, collaborative team culture. Benefit from flexible work hours and a competitive salary of $79K plus 12% superannuation. While relocation support, including temporary housing, may be available for the right candidate, this rare opportunity offers a chance to make a meaningful difference while enjoying island life in a captivating and tranquil environment!

With diverse responsibilities across waste, water quality, and public health, this role is crucial to Norfolk Island's ongoing environmental stewardship! Apply Today!

To Apply

Applications will close at 10pm on Monday 18th November 2024.

For a confidential conversation, please call Cole Berman on 0428 642 119 at Peak Recruitment Services. Alternatively, you can access further information using the following link <https://lgaqld.applynow.net.au/jobs/PEAK692>