

MUSEUMS AND RESEARCH CENTRE SCHOOL HOLIDAY UPDATE

School Holiday Program

With the school holidays in the next couple of weeks, we have a new set of activities for holidaying kids and their parents!

Come daun'taun from 26 June – 10 July and have fun learning at the museum. Just some of the activities include; learning about the Polynesian people as first settlers on Norfolk Island, draw a picture of the Polynesian Settlement at Emily Bay, unjumble word puzzles and learn about the plants in the garden at No 10.

As usual, holiday booklets may be picked up at the R.E.O bookshop at Kingston or any of the museum venues. Locals and kids have free entry to all Museum venues. We look forward to seeing all yorlye!

School Holiday Activities @ the Museums!

PIER STORE: Have a close look at a copy of the Great Seal of Norfolk. Learn about the people who owned land on Norfolk in 1900

COMMISARIAT STORE: Practice your cursive handwriting. Imagine and draw what life was like in the Polynesian settlement for a chance to win a prize!

NO. 10 QUALITY ROW: Hunt for the Ramsay brick and other plants at No.10 Quality Row

R.E.O BOOKSTORE: Complete a convict crossword puzzle and learn about some Norfolk stories. You can pick up your activity booklet from here, or any of the museum venues listed on this map.

HMS SIRIUS MUSEUM: Unjumble words to identify artefacts and find missing photography details.
