Watawieh yorlyi and a big welcome to our visitors,

We are all looking forward to the New Zealand travel border opening up and we can then welcome back Air Chathams and visitors from NZ. In the meantime, Andy Taylor, Editor of the Inflight magazine 'Air Chats', continues to publish Norfolk stories in the magazine. The latest article is called "Watawieh – Hello" is a great read about the local language with assistance and quotes from Chelsea Evans (thanks fe awu!) The next article will focus on the history of the island's food culture.

The Norfolk Island Tourism Instagram account is norfolk.island, and as of this week, we now have 13,400 followers! A recent popular Instagram post was this amazing photo of Emily Bay by Liz Hewson, which received 614 likes. In general, photos that are getting lots of likes are of Emily Bay, sunsets, sunrises and clifftop views.

"Welcome to an island that's not your everyday South Pacific destination. Sure, Norfolk Island has been blessed with world-class beaches, a pristine environment, and endless opportunities for total relaxation. But our island also offers something more. Whichever way you turn on Norfolk Island, you'll find 360 degrees of Wonder".

The Norfolk Island Travel Guide video clip is available to view and share on the NIT YouTube channel, along with short promotional clips suitable for sharing on social channels. The clips are for promoting Norfolk Island as a holiday destination
