Treasures of the South Pacific (ToSP)

Norfolk Island Tourism participated in the recent ToSP roadshow 8-10 August with functions held in: Brisbane (137 travel agents) Gold Coast (63 Travel Agents) Melbourne (108 Travel Agents) and Sydney the following week with 135 Travel Agents in attendance. Destinations who are part of ToSP are Fiji Tourism/Fiji Airways, Cook Islands Tourism, New Caledonia Tourism, Papua New Guinea Tourism/Airways, Samoa Tourism, Solomon Islands Tourism, Vanuatu Tourism and Tahiti

Tourism. Hidden Treasures of the South Pacific represents the smaller island nations; The Kingdom of Tonga, Kiribati, Tuvalu, Nuie, Marshall Islands, Palau, Naura and the Federated States of Micronesia.

A voucher for a 5- night stay was a lucky prize at all four functions. Thank you to Aloha Apartments, Channers on Norfolk, the South Pacific Resort and Cumberland Resort and Spa for your support. A gift bag of Norfolk souvenirs was also given away with thanks to Baunti Tours, Pinetree Tours and the Visitor Information Centre. Each destination had a table set up to meet the Travel Agents, hand out brochures, and answer questions. The event included a 5-minute power point presentation by each destination. Overall, the industry was very positive about Norfolk Island with many clients still preferring to travel closer to home. Clients like that Norfolk Island is an easy destination to get to with no travel restrictions, however our representatives stressed that visitors should travel responsibly.
