Chasing the Light - Norfolk Island

Last Friday and Saturday evenings at Ferny Lane Theatre, TV celebrity Ray Martin, and Photographer Ken Duncan introduced their brand new documentary to the community. The two friends endeavoured to get the best shots of beautiful Norfolk, and indeed they did! Assisted by local photographer Zach Sanders, they also met and featured plenty of friendly locals. The documentary project was funded by Tourism Australia and the Department of Infrastructure. The film was shot by award winning filmmaker Andy Taylor (photo credit) and managed by Trina Shepherd. It is planned to screen on SBS TV on 17 April and will then be available on SBS On Demand.
